Ordering procedures

Editions are reserved for members of Halle für Kunst and can be ordered in writing by e-mail, fax or post. Non-members wishing to order works can do so by including a membership registration. Each member can purchase only one edition.

Provided we can fill your order, you will receive an invoice from us, which we ask you to settle within 14 days. Where orders exceed the number of copies available, orders will be handled in the order in which they are received. In the case of a lottery, those who are not selected to receive an edition will receive notification from us.

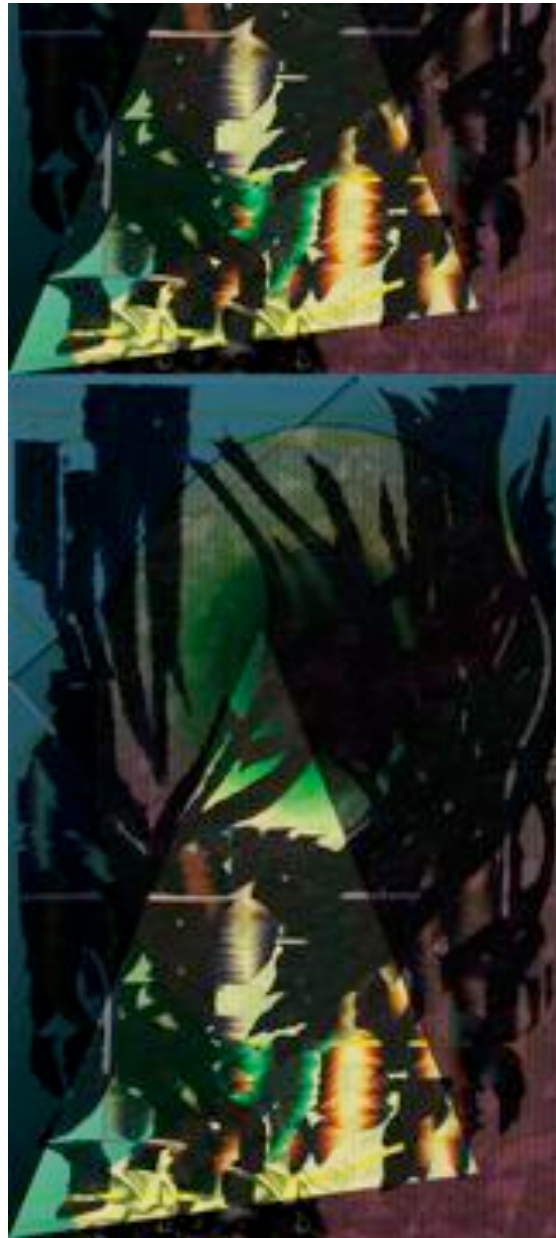

If you wish to receive your artwork by post, it will be sent out once your payment has been received. Insurance, postage and packaging charges will be added to the sale price of the edition. Editions can also be delivered by courier on request and for an additional charge. Artworks may also be collected in person against payment in cash or once bank transfer of your payment has posted to our account. Please collect annual editions within 14 days of payment. Please contact us to make an appointment to pick up artwork. Unfortunately, we are unable to store annual editions at the Halle für Kunst once they have been purchased. Complaints will only be considered if we receive them in writing within one week of delivery or collection of the artwork. Orders can be cancelled in writing within 14 days, after which time they become binding.
